

Chapter Four

The Twelve Apostles' Healing Ministry

1. According to the author, why is much theology concerning healing passive and impotent? Pg. 53

---

---

2. Fill in the blank: The Father's will is perfectly revealed through Christ's _____ to His disciples as well as it has been through His teaching, actions, works and attitudes. Pg. 54

---

3. True or False? Real disciples must be the kind of believers that have real faith and work the works of God. Pg. 54

---

4. What are modern believers often not taught to observe (obey)? Pg. 54

---

---

5. What were the Twelve disciples commissioned to do in Matthew 10:1, 5-8? Pg. 55

---

---

---

---

6. True or False? Every command to the Twelve apostles applies to every disciple in every generation because of the Great Commission. Pg. 55

---

7. What is the only alternative to doing and to preaching what Christ commanded the Twelve to do? Pg. 56

---

---

8. What has the deceptive appearance of orthodoxy? Pg. 56

---

---

9. What have many respected leaders inherited? Pg. 56

---

---

10. What will those disciplined by these respected ministers assume? Pg. 56

11. Fill in the blanks: Christ-like leaders can be good examples in some areas of life and ministry, but _____ is the pattern. Pg. 56

12. True or False? Any theology that makes Christ and His commands from primary focus is a heresy no matter how rejected its human source may be. Pg. 56

13. It is not enough to be commissioned and sent out. What else is necessary? Pg. 56

14. What will require humility from ministries that are already established? Pg. 57

15. The Lord of the Harvest is sending conformed laborers into His harvest. What are these disciples conformed to? Pg. 57

16. What are the three elements that they author says are present in the command of Christ to His disciples found in Matthew 10? Pg. 57

17. Fill in the blanks: The Holy Spirit is at work creating the _____ of _____ in believers. Pg. 57

18. True or False? Every Christian ministry's goal should be to be increasing in His image and increasingly duplicating Christ's ministry. Pg. 57

19. What two elements are found in these commands from Christ that have not been present in the other general statements about Christ's mass ministry found in previous chapters? Pg. 57

20. These two elements have not been present in the general statements. Where are they found?
Pg. 57

---

---

21. What does Christ assume that His commissioned and instructed disciples will be able to do?
Pg. 58

---

---

22. What had the Twelve received that they had to give? Pg. 58

---

---

23. What does Christ assume here about the disciples that might become an issue? Pg. 58

---

---

24. Fill in the blanks: Christ assumes a capacity in His disciples to _____ healing and deliverance from evil spirits to others as a regular, on-going part of their ministry. Pg. 58

---

25. True or False? Much modern theology treats healing as if it were a normal and expected expression of Christian ministry. Pg. 58

---

26. What produces the ineffectiveness of some Christians in the ministry of healing, miracles and deliverance? Pg. 59

---

---

27. What is the “earlier failure” that the author describes? Pg. 59

---

---

28. What is a “serious disobedience” according to the author? Pg. 59

---

---

---

---

29. In a passage found in Luke Chapter 10, Christ commands believers to pray that laborers would be sent into the plentiful harvest. What does the author says is a contrast with some modern teaching on prayer? Pg. 59

---

---

30. The author quotes a verse from “another place” to emphasize that the harvest is already prepared. Pg. 59-60

---

---

31. What will labors in the harvest need to be able to do consistently? Pg. 60

---

---

32. What does the author say is “intimately connected” with preaching the Gospel of the Kingdom? Pg. 60

---

---

33. When theology disputes that healing ministry is commanded for believers today, what are they disputing? Pg. 60

---

---

34. What does the author say is a “fact” about “everyone Christ sent”? Pg. 60

---

---

35. What must the Bride of Christ learn? Pg. 61

---

---

36. In a passage in Acts 4, the leadership of the Church was being threatened and responded with an interesting prayer. What did this prayer reveal? Pg. 61

---

---

37. How should believers speak the Word of God? Pg. 61

---

---

38. How did Peter and John expect that the risen Christ would validate the Gospel? Pg. 62

39. What should not escape the reader according to the author? Pg. 62

---

---

40. The author says that this suggests two things. What are they? Pg. 62

---

---

---

41. What were the Twelve going to do and what were they going to expect? Pg. 62

---

---

---

42. What do these verses in Acts 4:29-31 reveal about the disciples' beliefs and thoughts about healing? Pg. 62

---

---

---

43. The author writes that "there is nothing in this passage to suggest" what? Pg. 62

---

---

---

44. What did the disciples already know before they prayed in this situation and therefore did not need to seek God about? Pg. 62

---

---

45. How did the Twelve apostles come to already understand the Father's will on this matter of healing? Pg. 62

---

---

46. The author says that there is "no hint" of what? Pg. 62

---

---

47. The apostles simply asked the Father to do what three things in this prayer? Pg. 62

---

---

---

---

48. How does God respond to this prayer? What is the Father's unmistakable stamp of approval on this prayer? What does the Father grant? Pg. 62-63

---

---

---

---

49. Acts 5:12-16 records the results of the apostles speaking the word of God with boldness. What does this text reveal that continued powerfully through the apostles? Pg. 63

---

---

50. The text reveals that these miraculous events were happening at "the hands of the apostles". The author writes that this statement implies what about the nature of the events and the level of control of the apostles? Pg. 63

---

---

51. What attitude is challenged by the fact of there being many signs and wonders? Pg. 63

---

---

---

---

52. True or False: Signs and wonders were mysterious to the apostles and should be today. Pg. 63

---

53. What was the "powerful, intended effect" beyond the obvious help that ill and injured people received? Pg. 64

---

---

54. Fill in the blank: Supernatural ministry was important in _____ then, and is still important today. Pg. 64

---

55. What kind of atmosphere and momentum does supernatural ministry create and obtain? Pg. 64

---

---

---

---

56. The behavior of people in this passage reveals what? Pg. 64

---

---

57. What did God do in response to the growing faith of these people? Pg. 64

---

---

58. God healed some simply by Peter's shadow cross them. What is this similar to? Pg. 64

---

---

59. What does healing a number of sick people through the unusual means of Peter's shadow reveal? Pg. 64

---

---

60. What was the essential element in healing of these people? Pg. 64

---

---

61. True or False? This passage reveals that healing was not some sort of unexplainable, unpredictable or sovereign act of God. Pg. 64

---

---

62. This author says that this passage involving the ministry of the apostles is strongly reminiscent of what? Pg. 64

---

---

63. Luke says that "all were being healed" in this situation. How is Luke using the word "healed"? Pg. 64-65

---

---

64. What does Luke using "healed" in this way imply? What does this not suggest? Pg. 65

---

---

---

---

65. In the summary of the Twelve apostle's ministry, the author says that the miraculous and what are found together repeatedly? Pg. 65

---

---

66. In the second point in the summary, the author says that healing and what else are often found together in the ministry of the Twelve apostles? What is this like according to the author? Pg. 65

---

---

67. In the third point in the summary, the author says that the idea of "performing miracles" is repeatedly found in various passages describing the ministry of the Twelve. Where else is this expression found repeatedly? Pg. 65

---

---

68. The general accounts of the ministry of the Twelve apostles occasionally reveal what? What are they like to not address at all. Pg. 65

---

---

69. What do these general accounts in the ministry of the Twelve apostles never describe? What is this like according to the author? Pg. 65

---

---

70. Those that express the idea that it might not be God's will to heal someone are expressing what according to the author? Pg. 65

---

---

---
