

Introduction

1. How does the author, Dr. Roger Sapp, describe his theology of healing before 1992? Pg. 1

2. The author describes his experience of healing before 1992? Pg. 1

3. What caused The author to have a personal breakthrough on the matter of healing? Pg. 1

4. What did he discover in his subsequent study of Scripture on the matter of healing? Pg. 1-2

5. What was most apparent to him about his beliefs as he discovered that he could not reconcile what he believed with Scripture? Pg. 2

6. What place did Jesus Christ have in the author's previous theology of healing? Pg. 2

7. What had the author's previous theology of healing relied upon? Pg. 2.

8. The author says that he knew more about the common explanations of the value of suffering than he knew about what? Pg. 3.

9. How did having his theology of healing transformed affect his experience of healing within the first few months? Pg. 3.

10. What happened within a couple of years? Pg. 3

11. How does the author demonstrate Christ's willingness to heal? Pg. 3-4

12. The author says that the focus on his ministry is not healing the sick but is rather what? Pg. 4

13. What does the author say is his hope for the readers of his book? Pg. 4-5

14. In the context of the end of the age, what must the Church do? Pg. 5.

15. Why must Christ-like power in healing and miracles punctuate the Gospel at the end of the age? Pg. 5