

Quotes from Feminists About Christianity, God, Marriage, Men, Women and Children

“By the year 2000 we will, I hope, raise our children to believe in human potential, not God.” Gloria Steinem

“I found God in myself and I loved her fiercely...” Roman Catholic theologian Carol Crist

“Since marriage constitutes slavery for women, it is clear that the women’s movement must concentrate on attacking this institution. Freedom for women cannot be won without the abolition of marriage.” Sheila Cronam, feminist leader

“Let’s forget about the mythical Jesus and look for encouragement, solace and inspiration from real women. 2,000 years of patriarchal rule under the shadow of the cross ought to be enough to turn women toward the feminist salvation of the world.” Ann Lori-Gaylor, “Feminist Salvation” Article in “Humanist” Magazine, 1988.

“The simple fact is, every woman must be willing to be recognized as a lesbian to be fully feminine.” Sheila Cronan, Article in N.O.W. Times, January 1988.

“Being a housewife is an illegitimate profession. The choice to serve and to be protected and plan towards being a family maker is a choice that shouldn’t be. The heart of radical feminism is to change that.” Vivian Gornick, feminist author speaking at the University of Illinois

Dedicated to Sachi, Mother Kathleen Anbila, and all the other women and men who seek the spiritual feminine in themselves. Male is matter, matter is male, matter is evil, male is evil, feminine is spirit, spirit is feminine, and that’s good.” Shirley McClain, dedication page of her book “Going Within”

“The end of the institution of marriage is necessary for the liberation of women; therefore it is important for us to encourage women to leave their husbands and not live individually with men. All of history must be rewritten in terms of oppression of women. We must go back to ancient female religions like witchcraft.” Declaration of Feminism 1971

“The most merciful thing a large family can do to one of its infant members is to kill it.” Article, “Women in the New Race”, Margaret Sanger, feminist and founder of Planned Parenthood, USA’s largest abortion clinic business.

Quote from a former feminist philosopher:

“Sexuality is not simply a matter of games people play. It is one of the few matters, truly of life and death to society.” (If the feminist agenda succeeds, he warns..) “Our society is doomed to years of demoralization and anarchy, possibly ending in a police state”.

George Gilder
